

BAUMUNDPFERDGARTEN

Internship: International Sales

Baum und Pferdgarten is a well-established Fashion company founded in 1999, by the two designers Rikke Baumgarten and Helle Hestehave. During the years the company has received numerous awards and recognitions for its innovative design. Currently the company is experiencing a positive international development. The head quarter is located in the heart of Copenhagen.

Baum und Pferdgarten is currently looking for an intern to join our Sales department starting from July 2017

The intern will be involved in the day-to-day running of the online sales portal (B2B + B2C), pack shots, be in dialogue with B2B and B2C customers worldwide, and general ad hoc tasks within the sales department for instance in relation to international fairs.

The ideal intern...

- is studying or has studied business, management, communication, or similar
- has a high level of English both written and spoken, Danish or other Scandinavian languages are a plus
- has good IT knowledge – Office, InDesign and Photoshop are advantageous
- is well organised to ensure the smooth running of daily operations
- has an excellent attention to detail and is professional
- is passionate about fashion

We offer...

- professional and personal development
- an inspiring and enjoyable work environment
- the possibility to influence – and create a network within the fashion industry

Please note that this is an unpaid internship, and we expect you to join our team full time for 4 to 6 months.

We invite potential candidates continuously for interviews, so please submit your cover letter and CV already today. Send it to jobs@baumundpferdgarten.com. Please write "Internship – International Sales" in the subject field. Remember to state when you are able to join. We look forward to receiving your application.
