

BAUM UND PFERDGARTEN

Baum und Pferdgarten is a well-established fashion brand founded in 1999 by the two designers Rikke Baumgarten and Helle Hestehave. Over the years the brand has received several recognitions and awards for innovative design. Baum und Pferdgarten is in a very positive development with high growth and international expansion. The company head office is located in the heart of Copenhagen.

Baum und Pferdgarten is currently looking for an intern to join our PR & Communications team.

The intern will mainly be involved in the day-to-day dialogue with editors, stylists, bloggers and other key opinion leaders regarding our collections, products and initiatives. Further he or she will be writing texts for press releases and newsletters. The intern will be a central player in the running of the PR department and will also have other ad hoc tasks including taking pack shots of our products and welcoming/servicing guests in our showrooms.

The ideal communication intern...

- is studying or has studied communication, PR or marketing
- is good at communicating effectively and correctly in English (and potentially a Scandinavian language)
- has excellent writing skills
- is well organized to ensure the smooth running of daily operations
- pays attention to the slightest detail
- is passionate about fashion
- is service-minded and enjoys helping others

We offer...

- professional and personal development
- an inspiring and enjoyable work environment
- the possibility to influence – and create a network within the Scandinavian fashion industry

Please note that this is an unpaid internship, and we expect you to join our team full time for 4 to 6 months.

We invite potential candidates continuously for interviews, so please submit your application and your CV already today. Send it to Josephine@baumundpferdgarten.com and please write "Internship – PR and Communication" in the subject field. Remember to state when you are able to join. We look forward to receiving your application.
